MEMORANDUM OF LEGISLATION

Tamil Nadu Apartment Ownership (Amendment) Act 2022

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

1. The purpose of enacting the Tamil Nadu Apartment Ownership Act, 1994 (Tamil Nadu Act VII of 1995) was to effectively manage apartment community and to acknowledge the rights and duties of apartment owners. The said Act envisages formation of association of apartment owners or society to undertake of maintenance and management of common areas and facilities in the property.
2. In due course of administration of the provisions of the said Act over the years, it has been observed that there are several shortcomings and practical difficulties in complying with the requirements laid down in the provisions of the said Act as the real estate sector have undergone drastic transformation since the enactment of the Act in 1997. During the last four decades, the housing industry has come a long way and has witnessed development of not only stand-alone high rises but also large complexes and townships with multiple residential and commercial provisions including phased developments. As the scenario has changed, a need for replacement of the existing Act by new provisions more responsive to needs of the present day was required.
3. In view of the dynamic developments in housing industry, expansion and growth of the real estate sector of Tamil Nadu, and in the interests of effective delineation of rights and responsibilities of apartment owners in large complexes and townships, and in order to provide for effective management and maintenance of apartment community, the State Government after due deliberations, has made a considered decision to enact a new legislation by repealing the Tamil Nadu Apartment Ownership Act, 1994 (Tamil Nadu Act VII of 1995).

4. In view of the present-day aspirations and needs of the people, the new legislation, the Tamil Nadu Apartment Ownership Act, 2022 is being introduced to safeguard the interest of the apartment owners as well as improving the administration of common areas and facilities. This Bill, while giving effect to the changes that are necessary due to the change of circumstances provides, among other things, for the following matters, namely:
  - a. One 'declaration' for each project;
  - b. Association of apartment owners – only one recognised association under the new legislation;
