OFFICE ORDER NO.22/2010

DATED: 09.09.2010.

Sub: CMDA - DDP Division - Heritage Conservation
Committee (HCC) High Court orders dt. 29.04.2010 -
Processing of Planning Permission Applications -
Certain instruction issued.

Read: High Court order in W.P.No.25306/2006, dated:
29.04.2010 against INTACH vs. CMDA, CC and
LIC.

The High Court in the reference read above have issued certain directions to CMDA and Heritage Conservation Committee (HCC) to assess the value and examine the feasibility of retaining the Bharath Insurance Building at Anna Salai. The High Court has also directed that the HCC shall recommended to Government to take steps to notify buildings listed by it as heritage buildings and within a period of 3 months cause notices to be issued to the concerned, especially the private owners in respect of the buildings listed in the report filed by the Committee headed by Justice E. Padmanabhan, so that there is no threat of demolition or destruction or alteration to such buildings thereby diminishing their heritage value without the permission of HCC. Master Plan Unit has already initiated action to issue cause notices to the owners of the private buildings listed in the Justice E. Padmanabhan Committee's Report.

2. The Area Plans Unit is directed to take into account the above High Court order at the time of processing of Planning Permission Applications related to these buildings contained in the report.

Encl: List of Heritage buildings listed in the Report.
